

Library Management System – Project Report

This project implements a Library Management System using Java with OOP and file handling. It allows adding, issuing, returning, and searching books while ensuring persistent storage.